

Cost Allocation Training for WV Division of Public Transit

West Virginia Department of Transportation

RLS & Associates, Inc. provided training on the practice of full cost allocation techniques for rural and small urban public transportation providers in West Virginia. This course was specifically designed for transit systems anticipating bidding on a new Medicaid brokerage program that was going to be implemented on a regional basis throughout the State. This course incorporated brokerage trip pricing into RLS' standard cost allocation approach.